

Shred Easy Pty Ltd Modern Slavery Policy

We at Shred Easy Pty Ltd are committed to preventing and addressing modern slavery in all aspects of its operations. We recognize the importance of transparency and accountability in our business practices and supply chains and believe in promoting a business environment that upholds human rights and ethical standards.

Our values will be guided by environmental, social and governance (ESG) principles and we will continually evaluate our ESG strategy.

We will work collaboratively with suppliers and stakeholders to ensure transparency and adherence to ethical standards and monitor the potential risks of modern slavery within our operations and supply chains. This includes assessing the practices of our suppliers, subcontractors, and business partners.

We encourage employees and stakeholders to report any concerns related to modern slavery, and we have established mechanisms for reporting. If instances of modern slavery are identified we are committed to taking appropriate remedial action.

